

ROYAL ORDER OF KAMEHAMEHA I
HEIAU O MĀMALAHOA
Moku o Hilo, Hamakua, and Kaʻū

To the Applicant

Having expressed a desire to become a brother, we presume you are willing to consider thoroughly the step you propose to take. The exact nature of our institution being unknown to you, we deem it advisable that you should be informed on certain points, the knowledge of which affect your decision to apply for membership.

The Royal Order of Kamehameha I interferes neither with religion, nor politics, but has for its foundation – the great basic principles of the Fatherhood of Akua and the Brotherhood of Man. No Atheist can be a brother. The Order strives to teach a man the duty he owes to Ke Akua, his family, his neighbor(s), and himself. It inculcates the practice of virtue and makes an extensive use of symbolism in its teachings.

It cannot be too strongly emphasized that the Order is not to be entered in the hope of personal gain or advancement. Admission must not be sought from mercenary or other unworthy motives. Anyone who thinks in this manner will be bitterly disappointed. The aim of the true Brotherhood is to cultivate a brotherly feeling among men and to help whomever we can.

The order is not a benefit society. This fact cannot be too strongly emphasized. No man should enter the ranks of the Order in hope or expectation that he will derive any financial benefit from it. The Order's charity is directed towards those who, from unforeseen circumstances and through no fault of their own, have met with misfortune.

The Order has insisted that men should come to its doors entirely of their own free will, and not as a result of solicitations, or from feelings of curiosity, but simply from a favorable opinion of the institution, and a desire to be ranked among its members.

We have no authority at the present time to give you further information regarding the brotherhood you propose to join, but we have imparted sufficient knowledge to enable you to conclude that the Order is not contrary to the principles which mark a man of upright heart and mind, and has in it nothing inconsistent with one's civil, moral, or religious duties.

We think it advisable to inform you that your admission to our Order will entail certain financial obligations which you should be able to discharge without detriment to yourself or those dependent upon you. In addition to the fees and contributions payable upon your entrance, there will be an annual subscription for the support of our Order and Moku, and from time-to-time you may be called upon to contribute for the relief work connected with the Order.

In the event that you are elected to receive the Degrees of the Royal Order of Kamehameha I, you shall be notified. You shall be informed of the date, time, place, and dress code required of you. If you are not accepted into the Order, you shall also be so informed and your application fees will be returned to you.
